To whom it may concern

Here are some PROVISIONAL COSTS OF LIVING IN ITALY, based on some of the basic needs. Some costs may vary according to personal choices. This document aims at informing on usual basic expenses of first year students. Some of them may be later balanced by scholarship, if the student will result winner in December ranking list.

- For the annual renewal of your Stay permit, you will need to prove to have at least 6500€ on your bank account.

Bank account must be in your name.

- Stay permit will cost you 118€ per year.
- Accommodations range goes between 250€ and 350€ approx. per month, and, in order to rent an apartment, it is usually requested a deposit of 3 months rate.
- Meals will cost you around 200€ per month.
- Enrollment fees for the first semester are approx 500€ (divided in two installment). You will need to prove your family economic status (through ISEE certification) to reduce the cost of the second semester fee (range of third installment: 0€-2070€) or to win the scholarship. If you win the scholarship, you will not have to pay the third installment and you are eligible to ask for a refund for the first and second installment.
- Each year, you need a health insurance valid for not less than 1 year. You can have one of your own or do it on your arrival at the price of 120€ on www.waitaly.net
- Transports, if you use them, will cost you approx. 65€ per month
