Information on personal data processing

In addition to the information on the processing of personal data you already received, the Università degli Studi del Piemonte Orientale "Amedeo Avogadro" informs you that your personal data will be processed for the correct implementation of the Covid-19 anti-accounting safety protocols provided for by law, the protection of the health of people entering the premises and in particular the prevention of contagion from COVID-19 and the collaboration with public authorities and, in particular, health authorities (legal basis: art. 6 (1) (c) GDPR for common data and art. 9 (2) (h) and (i) GDPR for data belonging to special categories). The relevant legal provisions on which the processing carried out are based are identified in the combined provisions of Art. 1 (7) (d) of the Ministerial Decree of 11 March 2020 and the rules contained in the shared Protocol 14 March 2020, Protocol 24 April 2020 and subsequent additions and amendments. The University may also process data to assert or defend a right in court and for the management of litigation, for example in the event of disputes. The legal basis for such processing is the University's need to see its own rights or those of third parties protected in court (legal basis: Art. 9 (2) (f) GDPR). The required identification data are kept until the end of the state of emergency foreseen by the competent public authorities. This is without prejudice to retention for a longer period in relation to requests by the Health Authorities. It is without prejudice to the retention of personal data, even particular data, for a longer period, within the limits of the statute of limitations of rights, in relation to requirements related to the exercise of the right of defence in case of disputes. For further information you can contact the data controller at affarigiuridici@uniupo.it or the DPO at dpo@uniupo.it taking care to specify the reason for your request.
